Wine of the Week

Iliana Malihin "Young Vines"

Vidiano, Crete 2023

$19/$76

One of Greece's youngest and most progressive winemakers, Iliana Malihin, who is just shy of 30, has caught international attention for her beautiful, natural, and low-intervention examples of the Cretan variety Vidiano. Farmed organically near the mountainous town of Rethymno in Crete, here we have the vinification of her younger Vidiano vines. Gently pressed into stainless steel, the wine ferments by native yeasts before being kept on the lees for six months. Expect a vibrant and textured white with white peach, chamomile, apricot skins and herbs.
